

Dear friends in baseball

I recently established an association with Keith Madison, former coach of University of Kentucky Baseball. Keith Madison retired from coaching baseball at the University of Kentucky in 2003 after being the head coach for 25 years. Since his retirement Coach Madison has been involved with Score International a wonderful program feeding off his love for baseball and his sports ministry mission.

“Keith feels blessed as he reaches out to hundreds of college and high school baseball coaches. Since, 2004, Keith has spoken to thousands of coaches and players throughout the United States and in the Dominican Republic.”

AND with all the support he has received he has been able to provide all kinds of baseball equipment for the young baseball enthusiasts in the Dominican Republic.

I support Coach Madison’s endeavors and ask that any baseball coach, scout, player, parent or otherwise help us in this worthwhile cause.

We’re not asking for anything but that bat, glove, bag or other baseball equipment that you may have outgrown, feel like you’ve worn out or are ready to throw out.

I urge you to check out Keith’s website www.scorebaseball.org and consider donating equipment. (There is a collection contact in Tampa Florida).

You can get more information by contacting me at jimf@dialinn.com PLEASE email me with any questions. Let me know what equipment you may have and we’ll get it collected.

It’s a great cause! Please let me hear from you.

PRINT THIS OUT AND GIVE IT TO ANYONE AND EVERYONE YOU KNOW ... I’VE BRAGGED ON MY FRIENDS IN FLORIDA AND TOLD KEITH WE’RE GREAT BASEBALL SUPPORTERS .. LET’S DO ALL WE CAN!
